

CAMPAIGN FINANCE – FINDING INFORMATION

What people and businesses/corporations/organizations are providing campaign funds for political candidates, and how much are they giving? The websites below will allow you to find that information.

CANDIDATES FOR PRESIDENT, SENATE, AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The Federal Elections Commission maintains this data at their website:

<http://www.fec.gov/disclosure/pnational.do>

CANDIDATES FOR THE FLORIDA HOUSE AND SENATE:

Go to the State website: <http://election.dos.state.fl.us/campaign-finance/contrib.asp>

1. Enter candidate's name
2. Click Office seeking
3. Click party affiliation
4. Click contributors
5. Click submit at bottom of page

You may also search by contributors to see which candidates an individual has supported.

VOLUSIA COUNTY

Council Chair and Members, Supervisor of Elections, Judges, School Board

Go to the Volusia Supervisor of Elections website:

http://www.voterfocus.com/ws/wscand/candidate_pr.php?c=volusia.

1. Click on the candidate's name
 2. Click "List all Contributors and Expenditures"
-

CORPORATE DONORS?

To find information about the persons associated with a business listed as a financial supporter:

1. Go to www.sunbiz.org
 2. Click Division of Corporations
 3. Click document search
 4. Information can be gotten by clicking on any of the following:
Inquire by Name, Inquire by Officer/Registered Agent, Inquire by Registered Agent Name, Inquire by Trademark Name, Inquire by Trademark Owner Name
-

LOCAL ELECTIONS IN VOLUSIA COUNTY CITIES

These reports are submitted to the local City Clerks, and are not available online. Citizens should ask the City Clerk of their cities to post the financial reporting statements of every candidate running for elected office on their city's website. Local newspapers often request and publish this information as well.